

Vacancy : Noise and Vibration Consultant

Position: Graduate Position, Paid, Full Time

Salary Guide: 25k+

Benefits: Corporate benefits package including healthcare and pension. Company car allowance with career progression

Description :

- Starting position in a growing Acoustics Department within a large consultancy providing asset integrity consultancy to the oil and gas industry worldwide
- Initial work will include workplace and environmental noise and vibration surveys, noise and vibration predictions, noise mapping, data analysis and reporting
- You will be working alongside experienced noise and vibration consultants and you will receive training and experience to expand your career within the organisation

Qualifications:

Preferred – Degree in Engineering Acoustics (BSc, MEng, MSc)

Considered – Degree in Physics or Engineering with some previous involvement in acoustics

Person Profile :

A committed interest in acoustics, an be willing to expand your knowledge

Good facility with IT, particularly Excel; some knowledge of specialist engineering and acoustics software and /or ability to program is an advantage

Ability to work unaided, apply initiative and to communicate results and ideas

Driving licence

Location:

Office location is Southampton, UK

You will be expected to travel to sites and offices in the UK, Middle East, South America, Africa, South America, Asia

Website: <http://www.petrofac.com>

Apply to: (see details below)

Graham Cowling
Senior Consultant

Petrofac - Plant Asset Management
Enterprise House, Ocean View, Southampton, SO14 3XB

Email: graham.cowling@petrofac.com

Tel: +44 2380 574574

Fax: +44 2380 332050

Mob: +44 7500 118 930

Web: www.petrofac.com